

To whom it may concern,

It comes to my attention that the FCC wants to reform NJ "Do not Call list" to a less stricter regulation allowing business to call people during the impossible hours. If so, please don't. Effectively these pesky businesses bombarding my tranquility, sleep, souper and work with their annoying phone call. I will contact them if needs be and not the other way around.

Thank you for your consideration.

Tuan Do